NATE ROBINSON

BLACKBIRD

by The Beatles

Nate Robinson was born and raised in the sleepy suburban area of Utah Valley, Utah, and began playing music through piano lessons at the age of 4. At the age of 12 he was introduced to the drums. In 1992 was offered a musical scholarship to the University of Utah, performing in the Drum line, Wind symphony, and Percussion and Jazz ensembles.

After years of performing in local Utah punk/ska favorites such as Stretch Armstrong and My Man Friday, Nathan began playing drums for the SLC ska group Sturgeon General and signed onto the Radical Records Group out of NYC. He toured the nation relentlessly for 2 years before returning to Utah, switching from drums to guitar and forming his own ska/reggae group “Two and a Half White Guys”.

This six piece group toured the nation 10 times over, performing in every corner of the continent including Canada.

Since 2000 “Two and a Half White Guys” have released 5 albums to date, one of which “Leather Jackets and Mustache Wax” was released through the Megalith Records Group out of Barcelona, Spain.

Returning to school in 2005 to study History/Political Science Nate was introduced to singing and performing solo acoustic music. By 2010 an accomplished career had been formed solely on singing and playing the acoustic guitar.

Nate has performed at over 50 weddings to date, and countless corporate events and social gatherings. Nate still continues to perform nightly, write music and entertain any crowd he is put in front of.

NATE ROBINSON BAND

Must Be Good
by The Slackers

The Nate Robinson Trio was formed in the summer of 2008, using all possible aspects of musical backgrounds, with the idea of minimal personnel utilizing maximum musical avenues.

It is an eclectic mixture of Reggae, Country, Blue Grass, Folk and good old Rock n Roll. Using multiple personnel, (depending on the event) you will hear: electric guitar, electric keyboards, acoustic mandolin, acoustic guitar, bass guitar, drums, harmonica and vocal harmonies fit for heaven.

Derived mainly with Après Ski events in mind this group takes a little from every style and makes it their own. Both high energy riffs and mellow grooves will keep your guests entertained no matter what the situation.

The Nate Robinson Band has played all sorts of events other than Après Ski. Whether its weddings, corporate parties, birthday parties, holiday gatherings or just a backyard get together, this group has seen and done it all.
